

TO SHARE OR NOT TO SHARE?

Deciding whether to share your research online can be tricky. Policies about what is acceptable vary widely, so make sure you are informed about what is and what is not permissible.

AIP Publishing

AIP PUBLISHING ALLOWS AUTHORS TO:

- Submit work previously posted on preprint servers
- Retain copyright
- Post their accepted manuscript to scholarly collaboration networks and preprint servers
- Post their accepted article to a personal web page and to an employer's website
